

Since the advanced amateur license is no longer available I believe that current licensees should be up graded as were amateur licenses up graded in the late 50's, early 60's. I have been licensed since 1953, passed the written test for extra and not the code and could not be up graded at that time because of the code speed requirement.